Happy Easter

Thank you to the PFTA for organising the Easter Bonnet competition this week. The hats looked amazing! We also have a special guest visiting the children after school, to hand out a chocolate gift to the children.

We wish you all a lovely break with your families.
 Happy Easter everyone!

THE TIPTREE HEATH TELEGRAPH

Issue No. 25 Spring Term

28th March 2024

Celtic Harmony

Cherry class went to Celtic Harmony Camp on Tuesday where they learnt about life in the Iron Age.

First they were welcomed into the village by the chief. Then they were all put to work trying many of the daily jobs people of that time had to do. They ground kale and herbs to flavour a stew. Then they twisted and dyed string to make Iron Age bracelets.

Later on they looked at patterns that would have been drawn on walls in roundhouses and how the roof was made with mud and sticks.

They had a great day!

Tiptree Garden Show

Well done to the children who completed half-term holiday homework and produced beautiful creative pieces. Wendy McNulty, our Chair of Governors, helped decide the 12 entries to enter into the Garden Show. Due to our entries, we won the Inter-School Shield. Congratulations to Tiptree Heath and our individual winners.

Well done to Elijah who came 1st, Pippa who came 2nd and Erin who came 3rd with their Pasta Garden; Vinnie who came 1st, Connor who came 2nd and Elodie who came 3rd with their Mini Scarecrow; Hollie who came 1st and Evalynn who came 2nd in the Easter Card category and Hannah who came 1st, Ethan who came 2nd and Sebastian who came 3rd in the Spring Garden Collage.

Well done everyone!
